Petersbourg, November 20.

THE Swediſh Miniſter having complained to this Court, a few Days ago, of ſome Irregularities being committed by the Ruſſian Soldiers quartered on the Confines of Finland, her Imperial Majeſty immediately ſent Orders to the commanding Officer there, to make ſtrict Enquiry into the Truth of theſe Complaints, and to puniſh ſeverely all thoſe who ſhall appear to deſerve it. An Expreſs is arrived at Court from M. de Nepleuf, our Miniſter at Conſtantinople, with Advice, that the Grand Vizier had acquainted the Foreign Miniſters, by Order of the Grand Seignor, with the Concluſion of a Definitive Treaty of Peace between that Court and Perſia; declaring at the ſame Time, that the Grand Seignor had taken this Step with no other View than to preſerve the publick Tranquility; and that ſo far from having the leaſt Deſign to break off the perfect Harmony which ſubſiſted between the Porte, and the Courts of Vienna and Ruſſia, he ſhould uſe all poſſible Means to render it perpetual.

Turin, Nov. 27. On the 17th Inſtant, being the Birth-day of the Dutcheſs of Savoy, who then entered into the 22d Year of her Age, the Nobility, Foreign Miniſters, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, all in their richeſt Habits, repaired to the Venerie, to compliment her Highneſs thereupon; which made the Court very numerous and extremely brilliant. At Night the fine Fireworks, which had been for ſome Time preparing before the Palace, were played off with all the Succeſs imaginable, notwithſtanding it had rained almoſt continually for three Days together. By Letters from Nice we are informed, that the Corſairs of Barbary appear more numerous than ever in the Mediterranean, and that ſcarce a Day paſſes without their taking ſome Veſſel or other belonging to the Chriſtian Powers.

Genoa, Nov. 28. The Count de Sartirane, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Sardinia, having notified his Arrival to this Government, a Deputation of four Gentlemen were ſent laſt Saturday to compliment him thereupon in the Name of the Republick; and on Sunday he was admitted to his firſt private Audience of the Doge, to whom he delivered his Credential Letters. The Inſtructions this Miniſter received from his Court are, as 'tis ſaid, to adjuſt, in an amicable Manner, all Differences relating to the Limits of the two Countries; and to make ſome new Propoſitions for the regulating and eſtabliſhing, upon a better Footing than heretofore, the Commerce which is carried on between the Subjects of the King his Maſter and this Republick. Letters from the Frontiers of Tuſcany ſay, that the Overflowings of the Rivers, occaſioned by the almoſt continual Rains, have done a great deal of Damage in thoſe Parts; but we hope the next Advices from thence will prove more favourable, as the Wind is now come about, and the Mountains are almoſt covered with Snow. Since the Wind's coming about, it has blown for near a Week paſt a perfect Hurricane, and has greatly damaged the Shipping, upwards of twenty having been loſt on the Weſtern Coaſt of this State, beſides what has been loſt at Sea.

Stockholm, Dec. 1. The King has named Baron Nolcken to the important Poſt of Firſt Preſident of the Tribunal of Juſtice at Jenkoping, vacant by the Death of M. Cederholm; and M. Hammerberg is appointed Chancellor thereof, in the room of the ſaid Baron Nolcken. His Majeſty has alſo appointed Baron Scheffer to be Lieutenant-Colonel of the Regiment of Jempteland. The Diſtemper amongſt the Horned Cattle having ceaſed in the Provinces of Upland and Sudermanland, the Prohibition, which was iſſued to prevent their being brought hither from thoſe Countries, is taken off.

Warſaw, Dec. 4. On the 22d paſt, an Order was publiſhed by the Regency, commanding all Jews whatſoever to depart from this City, with their Effects, within the Space of 24 Hours from the Date thereof, which they all complied with.

Vienna, Dec. 5. Laſt Thurſday their Imperial Majeſties dined in Publick, when ſeveral Lords and Ladies were admitted to dine at their Table, agreeable to the new Regulation. General Baron de Breidach, Ambaſſador from this Court to that of Petersbourg, and Count Eſterhaſi, Ambaſſador from hence to the Court of Spain, are both ſet out on their reſpective Embaſſies. 'Tis aſſured, that the Landgrave of Heſſe Darmſtadt intends paſſing the Winter at this Court. On the 30th paſt, being the Feaſt of St. Andrew, the Emperor held a Chapter of the Order of the Golden Fleece, in which Count Harrach, late Governor of the Milaneſe, was created a Knight of that Order.

Copenhagen,

[Price Two-pence.]

Copenhagen, Dec. 5. On Thurſday laſt the King, attended by ſeveral Lords of the Court, went to take the Diverſion of Hunting in the Neighbourhood of Jagersbourg, and returned hither at Night. The next Day about Noon we had a moſt terrible Storm of Thunder and Lightening; which, though it laſted a conſiderable Time, and the Hail-ſtones that fell were very large, we do not hear of its having done any conſiderable Damage. The Small-Pox continues ſtill to rage pretty much; the Grand Bailiff of Stockfleth died of it on the 24th paſt, greatly regretted; and Major General Count Tramp, and his Lady, are both dead of it at at Sonderberg, and have left ſeven Children. The Queen-Mother arrived here on the 25th from Hirſcholm for the Winter; and Saturday laſt being her Majeſty's Birth-day, who then entred into the 51ſt Year of her Age, the ſame was celebrated with great Magnificence. At the ſame Time the Marriage of Baron Gerſdorff, with Mademoiſelle de Roſencrantz, Lady of Honour to the Queen, was declared at Court. His Majeſty has preferred M. Seheſtedt, Captain of Horſe, to the Rank of Lieutenant Colonel; and M. de Rumohr is appointed Councillor of the Regency of Holſtein.

Dreſden, Dec. 8. On the 28th paſt the Court returned hither from St. Hubertsbourg. The Princeſs Royal advances happily in her Pregnancy, and publick Prayers continue to be put up in all the Churches of this City for her ſafe Delivery, which is not expected till towards the Beginning of January. On Tueſday laſt the Chamberlain Bierregard, who arrived here ſome Days ago in Quality of Miniſter from the King of Denmark, had his firſt private Audience of the King, and delivered his Credential Letters. Count Flemming, Miniſter Plenipotentiary from this Court to that of Great Britain, arrived here laſt Night from Hanover.

Frankfort, Dec. 11. By Advices from Rothenbourg we are informed, that the Princeſs Sophia, Spouſe of the Landgrave of Heſſe Rothenbourg, was happily delivered of a Prince on Monday laſt, and that the young Prince had been baptized by the Name of Chriſtian.

Duſſeldorp, Dec. 11. On the 4th Inſtant, Count Golſtein ſet out from hence for Manheim, to lay before his Electoral Highneſs the Reſolutions of the Aſſembly of the States of this Dutchy. The Count de Wartenſleben, Envoy Extraordinary from the States General of the United Provinces, accompanies Prince Frederick of Deux Ponts to Munich, but 'tis thought that Miniſter will return again ſoon to Manheim, in order to continue the Negociations he has begun at that Court. By Letters received Yeſterday from Munich we are informed, that the Elector of Bavaria has appointed Count Tettenbach to be Great Chamberlain of his Houſhold, in the Room of the late Count Konigsfeldt; and that Count Sinzheim ſucceeds him as Maſter of the Horſe.

Hambourg, Dec. 11. The Burghermaſter Lipſtorff died here a few Days ago, in the 55th Year of his Age, after a long and painful Sickneſs.

Berlin, Dec. 12. The King has raiſed the Colonels Oertzen, Ahlemann, Langermann, Krockow, and Truchſes, to the Rank of Majors General. His Majeſty has likewiſe diſpoſed of ſeveral Military Employments, amongſt others, the Command of a Squadron of the Regiment of Dragoons of Naſſau, is given to M. de Baſſewitz, a Captain in that Regiment. Count Wulcknitz, Marſhal of the Court, by Virtue of the Full Powers of the Prince of Hohenzollern Echingen, received, on the 7th Inſtant, from the Hands of his Majeſty, in the Name of that Prince, the Inveſtiture of the Office of Hereditary Chamberlain of the Empire, which his Majeſty, as Arch-Chamberlain, had conferred on him.

Paris, Dec. 12. On Thurſday laſt M. de Blanc-Meſnil, Firſt Preſident of the Court of Aids, was declared Chancellor; but he is not to have the Seals, they being given to M. Machault, who is to continue Comptroller-General of the Finances. M. Malſerbes, Son to M. de Blanc-Meſnil, ſucceeds his Father as Firſt Preſident of the Court of Aids, the Survivorſhip to which had before been obtained for him. Since Marſhal Saxe's Death, his Will has been found; by which, after ſeveral Legacies, he leaves his Brother-in-Law M. de Bellegarde, who married his Siſter, and is Miniſter from the King of Poland at the Court of Turin, his Reſiduary Legatee. It is the general Opinion, that Marſhal Saxe died poſſeſſed of about three Millions of Livres.
